Healthstore.sg

Personal hygiene is often not considered a factor in scabies, although washing contaminated items with hot soap and water can often kill the mites.

"They wouldn't even be as good as you can get at Costco."

A significant percentage of those who have died with GHB have also had alcohol in their blood.